

Just wanted to voice my opinion about the Superbowl activities, I am a mother of a 12 year old, we will not watch superbowl anymore, as well as many of my friends, we can't even trust something like the superbowl to allow children, whatever their ages, to enjoy, if I wanted to see that kind of thing, I can go to M-TV or soft porn sites, pretty sad, all my viewing from now on in regards to sports will be baseball and nascar. Make Justin and Janet pay all the fines, they did not think that one through, one more thing for the Jackson family, and you can tell that Justin is really his age, I thought he was a little more intelligent than that, use to be a big fan of his, not the time or the place. Too bad for CBS!
